

Oregon

Source Control Conference

Cleanup ~ Water Quality ~ Portland Harbor

Superfund & Clean Water Act
Sediment Remediation & Stormwater Permitting
Preventing Contamination & Recontamination
Watershed Approach
Case Studies

May 19, 2017

World Trade Center
Portland Oregon

8:00-8:30 REGISTRATION & CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

8:30-9:00 Highlights from EPA Region 10 During the Obama Years - Thoughts on Transition to the Trump Administration - CERCLA, Clean Water Act and Portland Harbor

Dennis McLerran

Formerly, Regional Administrator, US EPA Region 10, February 2010-January 2017

9:00-9:30 Portland Harbor – Moving Forward with Cleanup & Revitalization

Jim McKenna

Portland Harbor Policy Analyst

Governor Brown's Natural Resources Office

9:30-10:00 State Concurrence of ROD & Considerations for Successful Implementation

Kevin Parrett, PhD

Cleanup & Leaking USTs Manager, Northwest Region

Oregon Department of Environmental Quality

&

Sarah Greenfield, PE

Portland Harbor In-Water Project Coordinator

Oregon Department of Environmental Quality

10:00-10:30 BREAK

WATERSHED APPROACH

10:30-11:00 Beyond the Record of Decision: Reducing Toxics in the Willamette River
Watershed through Assessment and Collaboration

Mary Lou Soscia

Columbia River Coordinator

US Environmental Protection Agency, Region 10

&

Keith Johnson

Cleanup & Site Assessment Manager, Northwest Region

Oregon Department of Environmental Quality

IMPORTANT LEGAL AND TECHNICAL ISSUES

11:00-11:30 Integrating In-Water & Upland Remedies and Permitted Discharges

Joan Snyder

Stoel Rives LLP

11:30-12:00 CERCLA & CWA Coordination Strategies: Sediment Remediation, Stormwater
Management and Water Quality Permitting

Christopher Moody, PG

TIG Environmental

12:00-1:00 LUNCH – Provided

SOURCE CONTROL: CERCLA & Clean Water Act Overlap & Integration

1:00-1:30 Preventing Sediment Recontamination by Leveraging National Policies on CERCLA/CWA Cross-Program Coordination Strategies

Alexandra Liverman

Portland Harbor Stormwater Coordinator

Oregon Department of Environmental Quality

1:30-2:00 Managing Projects to Maximize Efficiencies and Cross-Program Coordination

Brad Hermanson, PE, PMP

Manager, Environmental Sciences & Engineering

Hart Crowser, Inc

2:00-2:30 BREAK

SOURCE CONTROL PROJECTS

2:30-4:00 Source Control and Stormwater Permitting in the Portland Harbor

Post-ROD Source Control Status Report

Matt McClincy

Portland Harbor Upland Source Control Project Coordinator
Oregon DEQ

Case study: Premier Edible Oils

Erin McDonnell, PE

Project Manager/Project Engineer
Oregon DEQ

Case study: Vigor Industrial

Tammie Wilson

Stormwater & Source Control Project Manager
Vigor Industrial